TONIGHT'S MATCHUP

Overall: 85th meeting (Alabama leads, 62-18-4 (60-19-4 NCAA))

In Tuscaloosa: Alabama leads, 31-6-2 (30-6-2 NCAA)

Current Streak: Alabama, Won 22

Last Meeting: Sept. 23, 2017 - Nashville (W, 59-0)

Alabama and Vanderbilt will meet for the 85th time on Saturday. The Crimson Tide leads the all-time series, 62-18-4 (60-19-4 NCAA), and has won the last 22 contests dating back to 1985. Alabama defeated the Commodores, 59-0, in Nashville in the most recent meeting in 2017 and defeated VU, 34-0, in the last pairing in Tuscaloosa on Oct. 8, 2011. Alabama head coach Nick Saban is 4-0 in his career against Vanderbilt, including a 3-0 mark with the Tide.

ALABAMA IN THE POLLS

Alabama's No. 2 ranking in the Sept. 18 release of the Associated Press Poll marked the 233rd consecutive week that the Crimson Tide has appeared in the poll. That streak is the longest active streak in college football. The 233 weeks more than triples second-place Georgia with the Bulldogs appearing in the poll for 86 consecutive weeks. Alabama's 233 straight weeks tops the Crimson Tide's previous program-long streak of 71 consecutive weeks under head coach Gene Stallings in the mid-1990s.

SCORING IN ALL KINDS OF WAYS

Alabama scored three non-offensive touchdowns as part of the Tide's 63-7 win over ULM on Sept. 17. The Crimson Tide recorded a pick-six by Will Anderson Jr., a blocked punt for a score from Malachi Moore, and a punt return touchdown by Brian Branch against the Warhawks. The three non-offensive touchdowns were the most by a Tide team since Sept. 17, 2016 at Ole Miss. That game in Oxford saw Eddie Jackson return a punt for six, Da'Ron Payne score on a fumble and Jonathan Allen follow suit with a 75-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown.

OPENING DRIVE TDs

The Crimson Tide has won 49 of its last 50 games when scoring a touchdown on the first offensive possession of the game. The most recent instance came against ULM on Sept. 17 when Bryce Young found Traeshon Holden for a 33-yard touchdown. The Tide's lone loss when scoring a touchdown on the opening drive during that stretch came at Texas A&M on Oct. 9.

PATs FOR REICHARD

Senior Will Reichard owns the Crimson Tide's all-time record for made PATs. The senior recorded nine PATs against ULM on Sept. 17 to move past the former record of 186 (188 attempts) by Adam Griffith from 2013-16. Entering this weekend's contest with Vanderbilt, Reichard has made 194-of-196 PATs for his career.

BRIAN BRANCH FOR SIX

Brian Branch made it count when he recorded his first career punt return against ULM on Sept. 17, taking the ball 68 yards for a touchdown. It was the first punt return for a score by a Crimson Tide player since DeVonta Smith at Arkansas on Dec. 12, 2020.

10 POINTS OR LESS AGAINST THE TIDE

Alabama's trademark has been its defense ever since head coach Nick Saban's arrival on campus. Since that first season in Tuscaloosa, Saban-coached defenses have held the Crimson Tide's opponents to 10 points or less on 99 occasions. Dating back to the start of the 2015 season, UA's defense has limited the opposition to 10 or fewer points 43 times across 102 total contests.

KOOL-AID vs ULM

Sophomore Kool-Aid McKinstry has taken on the Tide's punt returner role so far in 2022. He excelled in that role against ULM on Sept. 17, recording 136 yards on five punts for an average of 27.2 yards per return. The 136 yards are the third-most in a game in program history, trailing only Javier Arenas who set the school record with 153 against Tulane (Sept. 6, 2008) and owns the No. 2 spot with 147 in a matchup with Mississippi State (Nov. 15, 2008).

HOLDING TEAMS UNDER 200 YARDS

Alabama's defense limited ULM to 169 yards of total offense on Sept. 17. That impressive effort marked the 57th time in the last 197 games (since the start of the 2008 season) that the Crimson Tide defense has held the opposition to fewer than 200 yards of total offense.

WITH A GAME-WINNER ALREADY THIS SEASON, WILL REICHARD REMAINS...

CLUTCH

BY CHARLIE POTTER

Trailing Texas by two points, 19-17, with 15 seconds to play in Austin, Will Reichard trotted out to attempt a 33-yard field goal. The Longhorns used a timeout to freeze the Alabama kicker and were even late in raising the net behind the goal posts, but that didn't matter to Reichard.

He drilled the kick through the uprights, securing the 20-19 win and booting the Crimson Tide's first game-winning field goal with less than five minutes to play in a game since the 2006 Cotton Bowl. Reichard's body of work prior to the critical kick gave his teammates little to doubt.

"To have a kicker like we have in Will gives us so much confidence," quarterback Bryce Young said. "When they were trotting out the field goal team, I had all the confidence in the world. I already knew he was gonna hit it. When you have that feeling, especially from that range and even deeper, that it's automatic, that's what Will is for us."

Reichard, in sharing his mindset before the game-winning kick, just wanted to help his team.

"I just wanted to get an opportunity," Reichard said. "I just wanted our offense to be able to go down and put me in position. These guys fought all game long. I just wanted to do my part and help our team."

While he has a humble demeanor, Reichard is one of the most reliable kickers in Alabama's program history. He entered his senior year ranked sixth on the Tide's career points by kicking list and was seventh in career field goals with 42. He was selected to the preseason watch list for the Lou Groza Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top college kicker.

Reichard was a finalist for the individual honor in 2020 but did not bring home the hardware. There wasn't much more he could have done that season, however, as he was perfect on all scoring attempts with 84 extra points and 14 made field goals in as many tries. In what was his 52nd year as a coach, Nick Saban had never seen what Reichard accomplished in 2020.

"Will has been a consistent performer for us for several years now," Saban said. "I've never been around a guy that had a perfect season as a kicker - never missed an extra point, never missed a field goal. Had a game-winner today. I had total confidence in him. He did a great job on kickoffs. ... Will has done a phenomenal job for us.

"One of the most consistent performers on our team."

Reichard, however, was quick to move past his impressive 2020 campaign and move on to the next season, where he accumulated points with holder James Burnip - UA's punter - and long snapper Kneeland Hibbett.

"I think it's awesome," said Reichard of having his holder and snapper back for a second straight season. "I think over the offseason we were allowed to grow together and continue to work on our chemistry, and I think we've improved a lot as far as the operation and just punting and kicking in general because we've been allowed to be on 22 made field goals across 28 tries while adding 71 PATs in 72 chances in 2021. He is also off to an impressive start to the 2022 season.

"I REALLY WANT TO BE KNOWN AS A GUY THAT CAME IN TO WORK HARD EVERY SINGLE DAY, GAVE IT HIS ALL AND LIVED WITH THE CONSEQUENCES."

WILL REICHARD

"I really tried to leave that (2020) season in the past," Reichard said. "Whether I have a good or a bad season, or even really a good or a bad game, I try to leave it in the rearview mirror and focus on what's coming up next. Kickers are gonna miss, it's just a part of the game, and you've gotta be able to overcome that and move on to the next ball."

But how does a player top perfection? Reichard detailed how he tracks his own improvement.

"For me, I'll take videos of my form," he said. "As far as form-wise, I take a lot of videos on that and you can kind of see over the years how your form has gotten better and what you need to improve on. As far as just making kicks, we do a lot of charting. So, we'll go out, hit 15 balls and put where it went through in the uprights and you can kind of tell, even if you're making your kicks - are they going more towards the left of the uprights or more to the right? We study those things, as well."

Reichard and the other specialists have worked with new special teams coordinator Coleman Hutzler, who joined the on-field coaching staff this offseason after spending the 2021 campaign at Ole Miss. That's the only new addition to the room, though, as Reichard gets a second year to work around each other and build a greater bond."

In addition to hitting the game-winner at Texas, Reichard also tied his career-long with a 52-yard kick to open the scoring in the first quarter, matching his kick against Georgia on Oct. 17, 2020. For his collegiate career, the Hoover (Ala.) High School product has hit three times from 50-plus yards, also adding a 51-yard make against Miami in Atlanta to open the 2021 season.

The senior is climbing the career kicking points scored list and should surpass Adam Griffith for the most extra points in an Alabama uniform before the calendar changes to October. Reichard has been consistent, productive and even clutch during his four years in Tuscaloosa. But what does he want his legacy with the Crimson Tide to be once he moves on to the next level?

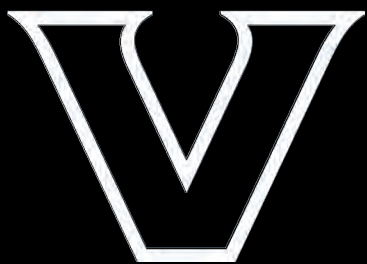

"When I came here, there was a lot of different things I wanted to do," Reichard said. "Some of the things I haven't accomplished yet. Hopefully, I'll be able to accomplish them this year after working hard all offseason and hopefully it pays off. I really want to be known as a guy that came in to work hard every single day, gave it his all and lived with the consequences."
